

Getting ready for TAFE study

This 20-hour “Getting Ready” course is a two week program to help you prepare for what study at TAFE is like.

Learners have the opportunity to gain study skills, assignment writing techniques, basic computer skills, experience the enrolment processes including completing the English and Maths testing in a supportive environment.

This course is perfect for those who are interested in education however haven't been in study for sometime or would like to learn study related skills to assist them to be successful.

Course information

Location: Leongatha campus

Start Date: 18 June 2020

Time: 9.30am–2.30pm

Duration: 4 days (18, 19, 25 and 26 June)

Cost: Free

You will learn:

- Your personal learning style
- How to research online
- Presentation skills
- Study skills
- Computer skills including introduction to Moodle
- Assistance with enrolment processes including the LLN assessment

This course is part of a TAFE, Learn Local Partnership and has been co-designed and delivered with Milpara Community House. To assist learners to move into accredited studies. It provides an overview of the Vocational Education and Training sector and the expectations of study at level III or IV.

For further information contact

Phone: 1300 133 717 (press option 1)

